ELON COLLEGE, NORTH CAROLINA

within these Ivy walls . . .

*Within these ivy walls we live,
And learn to grow, to love, to give;
Each passing day brings new endeavor
Which helps the bonds of youth to sever.*

*When time has given up the day
And each must walk his separate way,
May the most treasured memories he recalls
Be echoed within these ivy walls.*

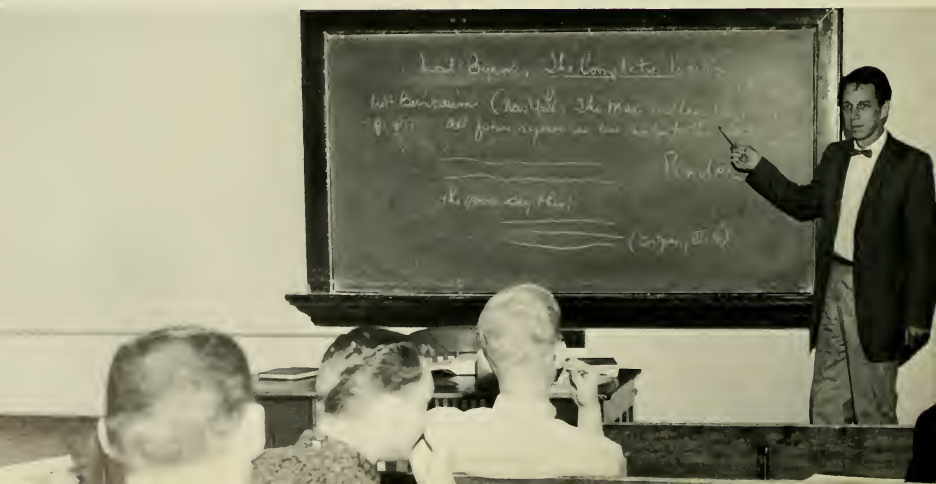

By The Editor

ELON COL

Within these ivy walls you dwell . . .
About you there is a lingering but changeable beauty. When you arrive it is fall, yet the summer atmosphere struggles to survive.
September: back to school . . . anxiety . . .
about you are sun-tanned faces, new clothes, squeals of delight, warm embraces, new faces. After the initial welcome come long hours of talk punctuated by outbursts of laughter and an occasional twinge of regret.
The first task of physical endurance one must experience is the ordeal of registration.
Lines, lines, lines . . . X-rays, pictures, cards, conferences, headaches, lines . . . hot weather . . . lines . . . tired feet . . . lines!

LEGE

1962

October comes and life on the "Campus of the Oaks" has settled into a quiet acceptance of the job to be done. Schedules finally arranged, classes begin, routine . . .

Football games on Saturday night. Hopes of victory on Homecoming Day. Suddenly there is a shortage of crepe paper, kleenex, and labor. Naturally there is the excited chatter about formals and dates and the usual gripes about tuxedos and dates. And always—"Let's go Big Team!"

November is realized. As autumn leaves fall, the campus is transformed into a kaleidoscope of brilliant hues—burnished gold, rusty scarlet, evergreen, softened neutrals. November is a transitional month . . . cool mornings, lazy afternoons . . . wander, study, dream . . . sounds of the choir practicing as afternoon shadows lengthen. Hot chocolate from the union on gusty evenings, over worries of forthcoming mid-semester exams . . . Evenings come and study rooms are filled with anxious students catching up with what has been put off too long. A sigh of relief is unanimous when exams are through. The pressure is relieved and vows made, (surely to be broken) to keep up from now on.

Thanksgiving holidays—by this time most students are giving thanks for a holiday.

side . . .

Back for a few weeks, and December comes bringing gray, a restful lull after the aliveness of summer and the brilliance of autumn. Christmas—parties—cheer—smiles—farewells. Here the New Year arrives quietly. The campus slumbers—unaware of bells, horns, gaiety—waiting for the onsurge of life and activity arriving within the next few days.

January: Exams again, this time more meaningful than before. Semester break—for some a sad farewell; for others promise of a future.

As the new semester begins, the crisp air is saturated with determination; thoughtful frowns are numerous. And perhaps the glory of snow will turn the world into a child's wonderland.

Spring comes in stocking feet . . . so slow but so quickly. One morning you rise and she is waiting. The air is light with friendship and laughter, coloring a world so long in peace. Pastels prevail. The campus is awed by the awareness of the miracle of life. Couples walk arm in arm; ivy on the walls is greener than green; and the plump moon is amused as romance seeps into the hearts of even the most timid. Books become a symbol of dreaded duty and are carried or avoided by grudging scholars.

The last three months of school slip swiftly by. Days pass, crammed with activities. So many things to do.

Sororities and fraternities rush. Bid night, serenades, pledges of loyalty begin a pressured week of laughter and tears. Any visitor on campus would be lost in fantasy and disbelief.

April bids farewell to the bitterness of winter and under the ancient colonades students linger after dinner talking, enveloped in the melancholy softness created by the traditional showers. She is contrary though, and this quiet mood is contrasted by the lightness of parties, banquets, and elaborate plans for May Day. Weekends someone is sure to be missing, only to appear Monday with a sunburned nose and praises of the beach that equal only the ocean's roar.

Sometime in April again the campus is deserted for the seemingly never to come Easter vacation. Students leave books, papers, and burdened only by bathing suits, bermudas, suntan oil, and pent up emotions, leave for beaches, relatives, friends, Fort Lauderdale, or maybe even home.

All too quickly the time is gone and so is April, leaving a cleared path for May and flowers. May Day breaks the invariable routine; and out again come costumes, formals, tuxedos, and gripes. Yet the weekend is one to be remembered, at least until you are caught in the whirlpool of endless activity which is culminated by that wretched week of final exams.

side . . .

Fall and spring semesters, 1961-62, are over. Friends part and new interests are found—summer jobs, vacations, more school, or who knows?

For seniors there are mixed feelings as they are forced from the secure, isolated world in which they have lived, into the impersonal world of conflict and confusion. The week after school is out, a reduced community stays on making plans for the climax of four years endeavor. Footsteps echo in the lifeless halls, and memories flood the mind's eye. Already one experiences a premature feeling of homesickness. Where to now? Am I ready? Questions haunt the senior as he leaves to begin life, armed only with a few facts, a little knowledge, less experience, and many doubts.

Success is relative. Nevertheless, at Elon you have learned and been offered the necessary criteria for success. Elon will always be a part of your memories, the memories you have made within these ivy walls.

DEDICATION

The character and reputation of a college, its standing in the educational world, the measure of its influence on those who live and study on its campus, is determined in large measure by the dedication and devotion of its faculty. For us, as for many generations of Elon students, this spirit, this quality of dedication and devotion, is most fully expressed in the lives of Dr. and Mrs. Alonzo Lohr Hook.

They are devoted to each other and to their family; but their loyalty and devotion, their unselfish service, and their enthusiasm for Alma Mater is an inspiration to us and to all of the Elon family.

It is with gratitude to them for being what they are, and with a genuine sense of pride in their accomplishments to Elon College, that we dedicate the 1962 edition of the Phi Psi Cli to Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Hook.

TO THE CLASS OF 1962:

Congratulations upon the completion of your course of study here at Elon College. It has been a pleasure to associate with you during these years of formal education. Our interest in you has been deepened as we have come to know you, your ideals and your aims. We shall continue to be interested in your progress and to take pride in your contributions to your fellowman during the years ahead.

We hope that, as a result of your experiences at Elon, several changes have taken place. First, we hope that you have learned to think. The world desperately needs people who can think objectively and creatively about the problems which face mankind, particularly those in the realm of human affairs. Many of you are qualified to help in meeting this need. Second, we hope that your faith in the Christian way of living has been strengthened. As you leave this campus may you be more concerned about your fellowman, your relation to each other and to God. May you leave with a spirit of dedication to the Christian way of life and with a determination to give yourself wholeheartedly in helping to bring a spirit of love, cooperation, and peace to all the world.

It is our hope that Elon College has given you adequate and thorough preparation and our prayer that God will give you guidance, wisdom, courage and strength for "the living of these days."

Sincerely yours,

J. E. Danieley
President

To The Seniors:

"... whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report . . . think on these things."

May Elon College have been an instrument for bringing to you of the Class of 1962 the wisdom inherent in these magnificent words of Paul. And may you in turn be moved to transform this wisdom into action as your way of life.

If such be done, the College will indeed have fulfilled its mission to you, and you will have lived up to the highest expectations the College has had for you.

We wish you Godspeed.

Sincerely,
C. Fletcher Moore
Dean of the College

To the Class of 1962

A philosopher once said that one who believes constitutes a majority, and it is true because far too many people do not believe in anything.

Once again you find yourselves at the bottom of the ladder. Your graduation from Elon College is, in reality, only another step in your education—promotion to Freshman Citizen. Yet, this step will be much easier than the last; for your educational experience at Elon has instilled in you a strong and sound belief—your belief in God and in the personal dignity of man. Cherish these beliefs and adhere strongly to them, yet always remember that these basic truths will often place you in the position of “a majority of one.”

Mrs. Virginia Epperson
Dean of Women

To the Class of 1962

A few years ago you began an adventure which has now been completed. You began this adventure as an immature freshman. Through your college career you have matured into a responsible citizen capable of meeting the challenge of a new adventure—an adventure where the responsibility you have learned to uphold will be even more important.

Elon College has served you in many ways. Personally, I hope that you will return to the campus often, that you will participate actively in alumni affairs, and that you will permit us to be of service to you in the future.

Sincerely,

A. S. Hassell, Director

ACTIVITIES

Don Terrell, Vice President of Student Body; Cliff Hardy, President of Student Body;
Eleanor Smith, Secretary-Treasurer of Student Body.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The center of student affairs at Elon College is the Student Government Association which operates efficiently and effectively to give us a campus life of which we can all be proudly a part. Based on a system of three branches—executive, legislative, and judicial—the Student Government operates through the efforts of elected officials and appointed committee members who spend many hours each week working toward the goals of providing the students of Elon with entertainment, information, campus improvements, and beneficial legislation, and of upholding the principles of the Honor System and the Campus Code. This important organization offers all students a chance to participate and gain useful experience in leadership and organization ability.

Don Terrell, Speaker of Senate; Lynn Ryals, Parliamentarian; Gail Bond, Secretary of Senate; Tom Brady, Chaplain.

HONOR COUNCIL

As the operating backbone of the Honor System and the Campus Code, the Honor Council handles violations of the two codes. This significant body, as part of Student Government, provides student regulation toward the goal of upholding justice and high standards on our campus. The council operates on an interrogation process with student witnesses and defenders.

As another part of the Student Government judicial branch, the Student Council is an appellate court for cases tried by the Honor Council. Operating with the same procedure as the Honor Council, this body also handles minor violations such as line-breaking.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Work begins early in the year for the annual staff. Pictures must be made, copy composed, advertisements sold, layouts drawn up, and a theme and cover decided upon. Many long tiresome hours are spent toiling over these endless pages and struggling with complications, but working on the annual is a rewarding experience for those who have the time to contribute to the task.

THE ELON PLAYERS

As the curtain opens and the action begins on stage with the Elon Players, we in the audience are assured of an enjoyable evening of play-acting. This group of talented students works diligently each year both on and off stage to bring outstanding presentations to the college. This year, the Drama Department presented Noah, a three-act play which was given during the fall as a theater-in-the-round production. Last spring, The Rainmaker was presented on stage.

As an organization, the Elon Players meet twice a month to afford interested students a chance to learn the fundamentals of drama. The club holds an awards banquet at the end of the year where outstanding performers are honored with "Eppie" awards.

CHEERLEADERS

Hand claps, high spirits, and the cry, "Give me an E!!!" are the trademarks of our cheerleaders. During football and basketball games, the hard work and practice of this group is briskly demonstrated as they lead us in cheering on our teams through victory or defeat. The cheerleaders, headed by Phyllis Hopkins, also set the torch for the bonfire pep rallies, publicize games, and decorate football goal-posts. The highlight of the football season came for the group this year with a trip to the Tampa game—proving that they are loyal supporters.

ELON COLLEGE CHOIR

Officers

Shirley Foscett, Secretary;
David Andes, Treasurer; Pat
Jones, President.

Director

Mr. Charles Lynam

Each week the student body enjoys melodious choral singing as the Elon College Choir takes part in our chapel programs. With talented soloists and group harmony, under the direction of Mr. Charles Lynam, the choir presents each year "The Messiah" and also holds various concerts. The Choir offers a chance for music majors and others who share an interest in group singing to develop talent and to add the warmth of music to our campus. As a service project the choir aided a family at Christmas this year.

Mr. Pat Johnson
Director

ELON COLLEGE BAND

Strike up the band! Under the direction of Mr. Patrick Johnson, our band adds tuneful color to our home football games and this year led an unforgettable musical pep rally across the campus. The Band also presents public concerts each year, and its members who practice hard have proved that, although a small group, it is a vigorous one.

First row: Jerry Osborne, Dick More, Lenny Riddle, Jack Moore, Tom Picinini, Robert Willis, Bart Wicker. Second row: Bruce Olson, Mike Little, Jerry Payne, Jerry Pike,

PHYSICAL EDUCATION MAJORS' CLUB

Students who plan to find a career in athletics and recreation, join in sharing knowledge and fellowship through the P.E. Majors' Club. They sponsor, as a campus event, a fun-filled Co-Rec Carnival.

An athletic award sweater is the symbol of membership in the "E" Men's Club—an organization for men students who have won letters for participation in inter-collegiate athletics.

THE DANCE COMMITTEE

As full, flowing gowns swirl under colored lights at one of our four semi-formal dances, the Dance Committee can be commended for creating atmosphere through time consuming responsibility and extensive planning of music, decoration, and organization. This body plans for annual dances at Homecoming, Christmas, Mid-Winter and May Day. The student chairman is Roger Bednarick.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

When a "twist" party is announced for the weekend, we are assured that the Entertainment Committee is at work. This Student Government committee, being responsible for campus entertainment, chooses movies for Sunday nights, sponsors informal dances, and plans other recreational events. The student chairman this year is Wally Sawyer.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

"Victory over the Catamounts" was the theme this year that spirited the Homecoming Committee in planning for us an unforgettable fall weekend to welcome back alumni. As a Student Government standing committee, this group organizes the annual parade in Burlington, plans half-time activities and the placing of displays on our campus. This year, under the leadership of chairman, Larry Biddle, the committee co-operated efficiently to give us a colorful and thrilling Homecoming.

First row: Laura Barnes, Larry Biddle, Wendy Cowall.
Second row: Bobby West, Roger Grimson, Bob Young.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

Rush week is planned, a Christmas party for the Congregational Christian Home for Children is held, and a sorority Greek Night is arranged, as the sororities and fraternities on our campus work with cooperative interest under the Pan-Hellenic Council. This coordinating council, composed of one member from each Greek letter social club, strives to promote understanding between the clubs and works with the purpose of fellowship as a guide.

HOMEcoming QUEEN

ELEANOR SMITH

MAID OF HONOR

DIAN CLARY

Queen of Homecoming was Eleanor Smith, an attractive Junior from Winston-Salem, N. C. Hers is a familiar face on our campus as she is Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body, a cheerleader, and a member of the choir.

Dian Clary was chosen as Maid-of-Honor. This Junior from Lawrenceville, Va. is also a cheerleader.

These two girls were a pretty sight atop the float constructed for them by the Student Government as they appeared in the annual Homecoming parade. Both were presented with flowers and crowns during their reign over the week-end festivities.

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

Each Fall, Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges singles out those students who have made outstanding contributions in all phases of their college career. This year there are five students representing Elon College.

The students are selected on the basis of scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship, and promise of future usefulness.

FOOTBALL

This year's "Fighting Christians" exhibited an exciting brand of football. The young team showed remarkable spirit and fight.

Highlights of the season were the last minute victory over Guilford, via a pass from Wooten to Buie; a win over heavily favored Presbyterian; and the fantastic thriller on Homecoming in which Wooten kicked a field goal in the last two seconds to down Catawba by a score of 11 to 9.

This year's Elon cagers got off to a flying start, winning the first eight games. The season was expected to be one of rebuilding, but the team finished in the first division after a hard-fought schedule.

One of the highlights of the season was winning the Camp Lejuene Tournament. Elon defeated Pikeville of Kentucky for the championship.
